Missionaries to Asia

Still Amazed!

We have been ministering to a little Korean-Chinese school located in a very small city up north in Mainland China on the North Korean border. The kids are precious, but their little lives as minorities can be quite challenging. We shared our story as Christian missionaries the very first time we met with the school principal several years ago. Long story short, much prayer has been given to asking the Lord to lead someone to live there to minister on a daily basis.

This past month we took John and Sara there for a visit. This sweet couple from Tennessee have felt God tugging at their hearts to move to this small town to serve full time. This town would not be found on any vacation brochures in your local travel agency. However, John and Sara fell in love with the place immediately! In addition to that the principal of the school welcomed them to come and offered any assistance he could to help them get settled in. This kind principal senses that we all share one common denominator...to genuinely bless the children. No amount of money can substitute God's people being there and modeling His unconditional love.

We stay committed to honoring the Lord and following the laws of the land, therefore, please pray as preparation is made to share His story in a place where it is not the norm, and to so many who have never heard.

Serving Him Together,

Ralph & Becky
